

I hope you have all had a really good Easter break. We had a special Easter hunt but I wasn't allowed any chocolate because chocolate is toxic for dogs. This is because it contains a chemical called theobromine which we can't get rid of from our bodies the way you can as humans. The darker chocolate is normally the worst of all.

Anyway, I am pleased to be back at school after the break because I really miss all the excitement and playing with my school friends. This week I have been helping our new Principal, Belle settle in. She has been visiting us a couple of times a week to get to know us but now she is with us full time which is super exciting.

I had a chat with Belle about all the things she likes. It turns out that just like me she is a bit of a fashionista, but she loves shoes, sparkles and anything pink... I'm wondering if we can co-ordinate and get matching his and hers outfits. I am quite sure mum could find me a sparkly unicorn bandana if she tried.

Belle also plays Rugby which is so exciting because I love a ball, but it turns out Rugby is played with a really weird shaped ball that I just can't seem to pick up. Maybe I will get her to show me.

Belle also has two fur-babies called Daisy and Dexter a Staffordshire bull-terrier and a Staffordshire cross. She says Daisy can be a bit grumpy, but I bet I could cheer her up because I am always so excited to be here.

I hope you will all join me in making Belle feel welcome.
